

Festival 2014: A day full of magic moments

Sunshine all day and a sensational atmosphere... East Finchley's Festival 2014 was one to remember! Thousands enjoyed the socialising, the stalls and the entertainment in Cherry Tree Wood on Sunday 22 June.

Thanks to everyone who dropped by the Archer stall to buy our tea towels or give us stories. The winner of our Archie's Arrow treasure hunt was Maddie, of Baronsmere Road.

Congratulations to all the organisers and volunteers who made this year's event such a massive success. Our photographer Mike Coles was there to capture the fun. We hope you enjoy his photos.

New for 2014... The Archer tea towel

Possibly the must-have item for any kitchen in 2014, don't miss out on The Archer tea towel. They were a big hit at the East Finchley Festival and they're still on sale.

Made of 100% long-lasting cotton, they make the perfect gift for yourself or a friend. Every penny we raise from selling them will support three youth groups in East Finchley: the Monday Club, the Finchley Youth Theatre and the 3rd Space Youth Club at Strawberry Vale.

How to order: Send a cheque made payable to The Archer for £5 per towel to The Archer, PO Box 3699, London N2 2DE. Include your name and address and we will deliver to your door free of charge. We also hope to have them on sale in the High Road soon. Watch this space!
